Pastoral Letter

We are coming towards the end of another challenging year, and, as the magazines go to print, the church year is about to change. Advent begins at the end of November as we begin to make ready to celebrate once again the birth of Christ. There are many services all around the Deanery in the run up to, and at Christmas and we hope that Covid will allow us to proceed with them.

At times this year has seemed very dark, and yet some good and beautiful things have emerged. I have felt so privileged to be able to travel along with and be with many different groups of faithful and loving people, and to join together in worship and planning . We look forward together in hope for the future and for a priest to join us in the North of the Deanery

We will hold a service to mark the turning of the Year at 6.30pm on New Year's Eve at Bellingham. This will be a short reflective service where we can light a candle as we give thanks for the waning year and move forward in hope to the New Year.

As we move into the festive season and marvel at the baby in the manger, I wonder what phrases of the Christmas story and the Bible readings that we hear resonate with you? In our beautiful part of the world with dark skies I often think of 'the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light ' What might that great light be for you.? I hope that everyone has a happy, blessed and safe Christmas and a peaceful New year .

Sarah Lunn (Area Dean)

One Big Story

Did you ever wonder what the Bible is all about? Is it just a random collection of writings from different time periods? Have you ever listened to the readings in a church and wondered how they fit together? Do you feel that you could articulate the Christian Faith clearly and succinctly to someone who asked you the question 'so what's it all about?'

Amazingly, the children in our church schools can do just that by the time they leave First School, thanks to a brilliant resource called 'Understanding Christianity.'

>>>>>>>>>>

This teaches them that Christians believe that the Bible tells 'one Big Story' from beginning to end and that the story can be told using eight core concepts. The first four concepts appear in the Old Testament and are as follows: In the beginning was God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God created our universe, the world and everything in it including creating humans in his image and his Creation was good.

Then came the Fall, which is when humans turned away from listening to God and began to stop caring for His Creation. The relationship between God and humans was broken and sin, struggle, decay and death came into the world. God's rescue plan was to choose a special people to be the People of God. He promised to take care of them and they were supposed to follow God and show everyone else how to follow Him. The rest of the Old Testament tells the story of their relationship with God. Sometimes they got things right, but often they strayed from God, ignoring his commands and worshipping other Gods.

So God came up with an unexpected solution: At the start of the New Testament we learn how God comes down to earth in human form as Jesus and this is known as Incarnation (God in the flesh). This is what Christians celebrate at Christmas. When Jesus grew into a Man he brought the Gospel (Good News). This included offering friendship to all, forgiveness and peace. He also brought Salvation (Rescue) through his death on a cross, wiping the slate clean for all of the bad things humans have ever done, or will do, and making a way for God to forgive them. By coming back to life from death he also gave humans the hope of eternal life after death and sent the Holy Spirit as a helper to humans in this life. We are now living in the Kingdom of God but this is only partially realised on earth. Some people are following God but many are still not listening to Him or caring for His Creation. The Bible says that Jesus will come to earth again, and make everything new; there will be no more sadness, pain or tears.

So that's the heart of the Christian story, summarised in eight concepts. I wonder how much you already knew and which bits are surprising to you? If you come to one of our Christmas Services, this year you might want to look for references to the 'Incarnation' in the readings and the carols? If you want to know more ask the person leading the Service to point you in the direction of more information and resources.

Wishing you all a Peaceful and Joyous Christmas.

WARK PARISH NEWS

After months of the minimum of events, the wonderful festival of Christmas brings for us, a feast which starts with St. Michael's Christmas Bazaar, on Sunday 5th December in The Town Hall ,at 2pm. You will find stalls selling Christmas gifts, Wreaths and cakes.

Earlier that morning MURC hold their Morning Service in St. Michael's at 10.30am.

The annual outing to Stonehaugh is on Sunday 12th December for a Christingle Service in the warm surroundings of the Village Hall at 6pm, including mince pies and mulled wine. A chance for a further Christingle Service is on Friday 17th December at 10.00am when the school hold their Christmas service in St. Michael's. On Sunday 19th December there is the choice of two services. In the evening at 6.00pm St. Michael's will hold their Carol Service. On Christmas Day at 10.00am the Archdeacon of Lindisfarne will be leading, in St. Michael's, the benefice Holy Communion. All are most welcome at any of these services.

Above there has been a lot of mention of St. Michael's and there is another Michael, I'd like us to remember and that is Canon Michael Cooper who died on 13th October. Incidentally, Michael was born on Christmas Day in 1930. Along with his wife, the Revd Dr. Susan Ramsaran, he was well known in the area coming to live in Wark upon the retirement of Susan from Bellingham. Our thoughts and prayers are with Susan and Michael's family. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

In what undoubtedly has been another difficult year, may I offer to the readers thanks from St. Michael's for all their support and understanding as we move forward to hopefully more stable times with confidence.

All that remains is for me to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We will not be back until February 2022, so, until we chat again.

Love, John

A NEW YEAR

I have been connected to Agriculture for over 65 years, I do understand Rural and Farming Challenges. The daily up and downs that will occur throughout the seasons. It can be too wet, too windy or too dry. It is a daily challenge.

With this in mind we have a big challenge of how do we manage 10 Churches? One Vicar (Sarah) plus 9 other Churches up the North Tyne.

WE need planning, co-operation and most of all understanding and all of us owning the daily challenges. Not I want.

We all need to work as a team. I recall 2003 – extra time – a line out is called – Martin Johnson – Matt Dawson – Jonny Wilkinson – Rugby World Cup 2003. This did not happen by chance, it involved a lot of team planning, co-operation and most of all, working as a TEAM.

Let us take up the challenge,
Happy New Year,

Richard Hay

JANUARY

The Advent candles in the church
At their four different heights,
Stand now blown out,
There's no more need to burn:
The Christmas scene has gone,
The shepherds left some time ago.
But on Twelfth Night the Magi with their gifts
Of gold and myrrh and frankincense arrived
And gave this month the title of Epiphany.
Through snow and frost,
Through slightly milder days,
This first month of the year
Will proudly bear that name
And, at its end
Will leave the month that follows
The first few snowdrops as its dying gift. .
